What You Need: Jericho Wall Craft 2 sheets of paper, Scissors, Glue

What You Do: Jericho Wall Craft & Activity Guide

1. How to Make the 3D Jericho Wall

Step 1: Prepare the Background

- Attach the Wall: Cut out page 2 (the city wall). Apply glue to the rectangular tab (marked with an arrow) and attach it securely to the top of the cut-out wall image.
- Position the Wall: Insert the intact Jericho wall (cut from page 1) so that it fits right between the two dashed lines on the background sheet.

Step 2: Connect and Wrap the Procession

- Connect the Strips: Cut out the sheets showing the priests and soldiers (2 procession strips). Connect the two strips together to make one long strip.
- Pass Through the Wall: Before sealing the strip into a final circle with glue, slide the connected procession strip through the front of the background wall.
- Complete the Loop: Connect the final end to form a complete circle, so that the procession wraps entirely around the Jericho wall.

2. The March of Jericho (Bible Story & Rules)

- Days 1-6: March around the city once every day.
- Day 7: Only on this final day, march around the walls of Jericho 7 times. After finishing the march, the priests sound the trumpets.
- The Shout: Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the Lord has given you the city."

3. Activity Guide (Using Your Jericho Craft)

- Marching: Move your paper procession around the wall according to each day. (1 time a day for Days 1-6, and 7 times on Day 7!)
- Sounding the Trumpets: After completing the 7th lap on Day 7, everyone blows their trumpets together. (* Ready your trumpets : previously distributed)
- Shouting: At the command to "Shout!", everyone lets out a big shout!
- Collapse the Wall: Pull the arrow on your Jericho wall craft so that the collapsed wall fits right between the two dashed lines!

What You Say

"What was our theme for this month? That's right! [The Safe Place: God is my strength]—God is our safe place and our strength!

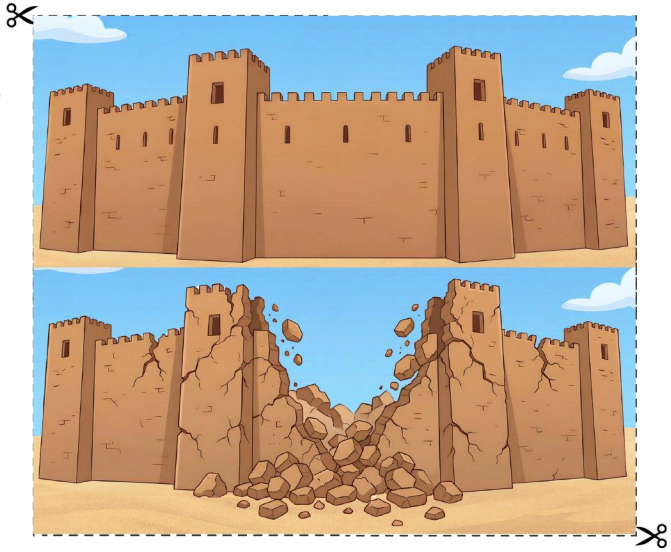

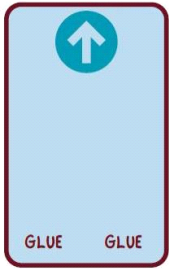

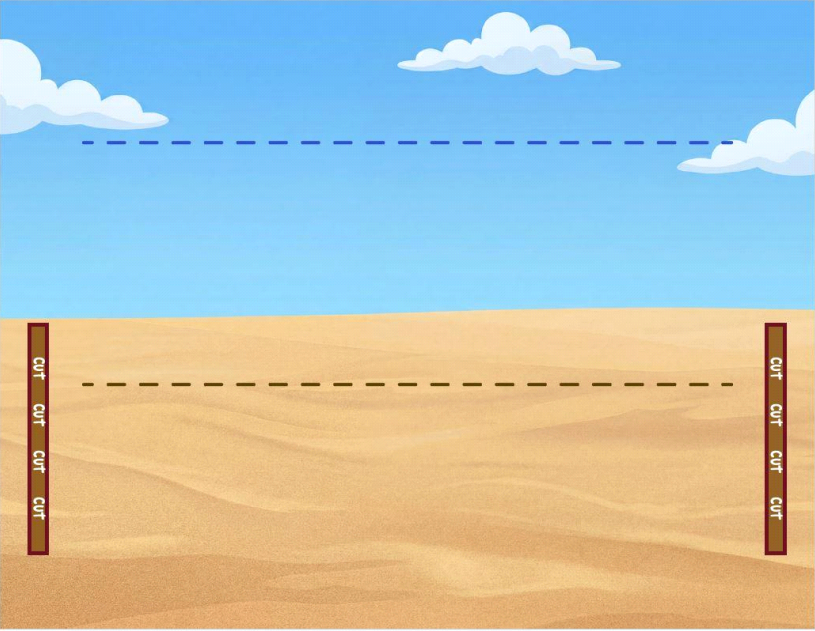

Today we learned about the walls of Jericho falling down. Just like the craft we made, when the priests blew the trumpets, marched around, and we pulled the arrow, those strong walls came down!

The Israelites didn't win by their own power, but by trusting God, our ultimate strength and safe place. When we face big, hard things, we don't have to worry. God is stronger than anything, and He is our Safe Place!

Let's Pray

"Dear God, Thank you for being our Safe Place and our strength all month long.

Just like Jericho's walls fell by Your power, help us trust You whenever scary or hard things happen. Even when things feel too hard, please give us the courage to look up to You, our eternal safe place. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen!"

October Week #2 (저/고학년)

Today's Bible Story: A Gold Statue and a Blazing Furnace

Today's Bible Verse: Daniel 3:28 Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "May the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be praised! He has sent his angel and saved his servants. They trusted in him. They refused to obey my command. They were willing to give up their lives. They would rather die than serve or worship any god except their own God.

Today's Bottom Line: God is with me, so I can stand for what's true.

Monthly Memory Verse: God is our place of safety. He gives us strength. He is always there to help us in times of trouble (Psalm 46:1 NIrV)

Suggested Virtue: Integrity

What You Need: "Furnace Find" Activity Page, Coloring supplies

What You Do:

Before the Activity:

- Print "Furnace Find" on paper, one per kid.

During the Activity:

- Give each child a "Furnace Find" Activity Page and make coloring supplies available.
- Tell the kids to look closely at the picture of the fiery furnace
- Explain, "In this picture, you can see Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. But someone else is in there with them—an angel God sent to protect them! Can you find all four people? There are also some silly, secret pictures hidden in the flames. Let's see if we can find them all!"
- Point out the list of hidden items at the bottom of the page (football, shoe, heart, sunglasses, dumbbell, house, thumbs up) and challenge them to find and circle everything.
- Let them color the picture when they are finished.

What You Say:

"You have great eyes for finding things! It was easy to find the silly things like a football and sunglasses in the picture. But the most important thing to find was that fourth person—the angel God sent to be with His friends. Sometimes, life can feel like a fiery furnace—hot and scary. But this story reminds us to look closely, because God is always with us. When we remember that, it helps us stand for what's true. Because [Bottom Line] God is with me, so I can stand for what's true."

[Make It Personal] "Sometimes when I feel nervous about speaking in front of a lot of people, I get a little scared. But then I remember God is with me, and it helps me be brave and say what I need to say."

Prayer:

"God, thank You for always being with us. Thank You that You are strong when we feel weak and that we never have to stand alone. Please help us stand for what is true, even when it feels difficult or when others around us are making different choices. Give us courage to follow You, wisdom to make good choices, and peace when we feel nervous or unsure. Help us remember this week that You are our helper, our refuge, and our strength wherever we go. We love You, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

God is with me, so I can stand for what's true.

What You Need: Balloon

What You Do:

Before the Activity:

- Inflate one balloon for each Small Group.

During the Activity:

- "Today we're going to work together to keep this balloon from touching the ground!"
 - Explain the rules:
 - Kids may tap the balloon gently with their hands.
 - No grabbing or holding the balloon.
 - Everyone works together to keep it in the air.
- Begin playing.
 - As kids get comfortable, begin adding challenges one at a time:
 - "Only use one hand!"
 - "Tap the balloon while standing on one foot!"
 - "Everyone has to sit down and still keep it up!"
 - "Pretend there's a giant windstorm blowing!" (Encourage kids to move around more dramatically.)
 - "No talking!"
- Allow the balloon to eventually fall or become difficult to control.
- Gather kids back together afterward.

What You Say:

"That started out pretty easy, but the more challenges we added, the harder it became to keep the balloon under control. It probably started feeling a little stressful or even chaotic trying to keep up with everything happening at once! Life can feel that way too. Sometimes everything feels calm and easy, and then suddenly things feel hard, loud, confusing, or out of control. Maybe you've had a day where everything seemed to go wrong, or you felt worried about something happening at home, at school, or with a friend. Today we're going to hear about Jesus and His disciples during a huge storm out on the water. The wind was strong. The waves were crashing. The disciples were afraid because everything felt completely out of control. But Jesus showed them something amazing. Even when the storm was wild, Jesus was still in control. And that's true for us too! No matter what is happening around us, we can trust Jesus because He is powerful, He cares about us, and God is in control. Today we're going to learn this important truth: [Bottom Line] God is in control, so I can trust Him."

Prayer:

"Dear God, thank You for being with us here today. I ask that You help all the friends here to trust that You are in control of everything, and help them to trust You in a new way today. Please remind us that through any storm or trouble, we can run to You, our safe place. You are our strength. We love You, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

October Week #4 (고학년)

Today's Bible Story: Jesus Has Won the Battle

Today's Bible Verse: Revelation 19:16 Here is the name that is written on the rider's robe and on his thigh. The Greatest King of All and the Most Powerful Lord of All

Today's Bottom Line: Jesus wins.

Monthly Memory Verse: God is our place of safety. He gives us strength. He is always there to help us in times of trouble. (Psalm 46:1 NIRV)

Suggested Virtue: Hope

Made to Play: an activity that encourages learning through following guidelines and/or working as a group

What You Need: "Draw the Good News" Activity Page 1, "Draw the Good News Blank" Activity Page 2, Coloring supplies, Wall tape, Chair

What You Do:

Before the Activity:

- Print "Draw the Good News" on cardstock, one per Small Group.
- Print "Draw the Good News Blanks" on cardstock, two per Small Group.
- Tape the two blanks to the wall at kid's height.
- Place a chair facing the wall, about five feet or more feet away.
- Tape "Draw the Good News" Activity Page to the back of the chair.

During the Activity:

- Divide the group into two teams.
- Position teams on either side of the chair and give each kid a crayon or marker.
- Explain that the first two kids will look at the grid on the chair and focus on one picture, what it is, and where it is on the grid. When you say "Go!" Those kids will run to the paper on the wall and draw that picture, then run back to the next kid in line. Continue until the grid is complete. Compare the two teams' papers.

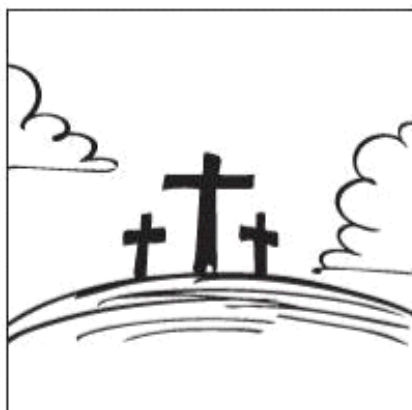

What You Say:

"Great job, that was a fun challenge! All of these pictures help us remember the most amazing rescue story. It had a sad part in the middle, but what happened at the end? Did the bad stuff win? No! [Bottom Line] Jesus wins! Remember that Jesus always wins! The difficult things that you face will not last forever. Remember that Jesus is with you right now, through the Holy Spirit. He will be with you through whatever you are facing. Nothing can separate you from the great love of Jesus."

Prayer:

"Dear God, thank You for Your powerful story that we get to be a part of. I ask that You would remind them every day that You are here for them and love them so deeply, and that You would be close to them today. You are our Safe Place. There's no one like You, Jesus. We love You with all our hearts, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."
